July Commentary

Your Fund (O Acc GBP) returned +2.5% during the month compared to +4.0% for the FTSE All-Share Index (TR).

Consumer staple company Reckitt was the top contributor, rising +14.5% in July. Reckitt has three separate businesses: Core Reckitt – a collection of globally leading consumer health and hygiene brands including Dettol, Durex and Nurofen. Essential Home – a long tail of lower growth homeware brands including Air Wick, Mortein and Cillit Bang. Mead Johnson – the US infant formula business. Our view is that Essential Home and Mead Johnson are comparatively weaker businesses that hold back the valuation of the Core Reckitt business. Two pieces of newsflow encouraged investors in the month.

Firstly, Reckitt announced the planned divestiture of the Essential Home business to private equity firm Advent International for up to $4.8bn. Whilst hardly a knockout price, representing a multiple of c.8x historical operating profit, this is an important and necessary step in refocusing the business on Core Reckitt. While Essential Home makes up <10% of Reckitt's enterprise value, we suspect it has used up a disproportionate amount of management time. Sensibly (we think), Reckitt intends to return most of the disposal proceeds by way of special dividend and share buyback, rather than redeploying the capital into M&A.

The second piece of newsflow was the company's solid half-year results. Within these, Core Reckitt delivered better-than-expected growth and strong margin progression, led by strength in Emerging Markets. Focus now turns to a potential disposal of Mead Johnson and sustaining strong delivery for Core Reckitt.

Following a share price rise of more than 30% over the past year, we used recent strength to trim the Fund's holding in the company.
