June Commentary

Your Fund returned -1.2% during the month compared to +0.7% for the FTSE All-Share Index TR.

In a world where attention spans are getting shorter, June provided multiple sources of distraction. A 'Memorandum of Understanding' was signed between the US and Iran on June 17th. This has, for now, provided reassurance to markets but does not bring a definitive end to the conflict.

Meanwhile, the IPO of SpaceX, Elon Musk's AI and space company, at a market capitalisation of $1.8tr elicited strong retail support, with 855,424 Robinhood customers filing an IPO access request during the month. Given the valuation at over 100x sales, we are cautious. Longstanding investors will be unsurprised to hear that we do not own shares in SpaceX.

Animal spirits are also high. Retail participation in single-stock options reached new records in May and June, surpassing the previous peak at the height of the meme stock mania. We continue to marvel at the appetite of the equity market to fund companies at ever-higher valuations, even as the bond market is now pricing in interest rate hikes.

We are focusing on valuation, and companies poised to win in multiple scenarios. Where we observe a margin of safety on business models that enjoy a strong moat, we have been adding to stocks. For example, we added to our small holding in Experian during the month. Where we think that expectations have run ahead, as we believe they had done with our holding in grid equipment manufacturer Hubbell, we have been taking profits. We believe that both companies are well placed to thrive in an AI future. Our equity allocation at 36% is higher than it was whilst, we believe, putting us in a position of strength from which to add on weakness.

As of 29 June 2026, Trojan Ethical Fund changed its target comparator from UK RPI to UK CPI. This reflects the phasing out of RPI, which has been deemed statistically flawed, and the widespread adoption of CPI as the UK's standard measure of inflation, making it more appropriate for assessing the Fund's long-term performance objective.
